Maria,

Got it. We'll do.

Miranda and Valchy,

There is a small chance that I'm going to end up being late to our S All Hands Meeting. Because David is out of town, he asked me to meet and greet the group from the Charleston Historical Society. They will be visiting at 9:30 am. I hope they'll be on time and I can get away by 10 am. But, as you know, nothing ever works exactly the way it is supposed to. So, if I'm hung up with the group, will one of you please move ahead with the meeting and introduce Ovnelle Millwood. My speaking points are below. I'll join all of you just as soon as I can.

Thanks

Maria

Welcome and Introduction of Guest Speaker - Maria Stanwich

Thank you for joining us today. We have a packed agenda so let's get started.

I'd like to introduce Ovnelle Millwood who most of you know. Ovnelle is the director of Workplace Culture and Engagement for NARA. She works with the MT and individual Offices to improve their processes and increase their understanding so that we can all improve culture and engagement.

I've asked her here today to discuss in general the shift in the program from engagement to Workplace Culture and to give us any advice she can on how we can improve on what we're doing to make this Office a great place to work.

Welcome Ovnelle.
